Registration for ISPC 2025 is now open!

Dear all,

We are proud to announce that the registration for the 3rd International Scientific Conference of Primary Care is now open. This year's ISPC will focus on Interprofessional Teamwork and Quality in Healthcare and it will be held on October 2nd and 3rd 2025 in Grand Plaza Hotel, Ljubljana, Slovenia.

The conference aims to address all professionals involved in primary health care (physicians, nurses, social workers, public health specialists, physiotherapists, dentists, administrators, psychologists, sociologists), as well as educators, key opinion leaders, informal caregivers, and patients. In 2023 the Conference was attended by 145 professionals from 15 countries.

Be part of a high-quality event that enables you to promote and enhance your research work and share your insights with international experts.

REGISTER NOW: iscpc.si/registration.

Main topics of this years conference are:

- Quality and Efficiency of Integrated Care
- Community Involvement
- Primary Care Education
- Well-being in Primary Care
- Sustainable Development in Primary Care
- XR in Primary Care

We also invite you to collaborate and submit your papers and latest scientific contributions in the field of professionalism and interprofessional collaboration on main conference topics. You can find further information and abstract submission form here: iscpc.si/abstract-submission.

We look forward to meeting you at the conference on October 2nd and 3rd and kind regards from Slovenia!

Nastja Slak
Project manager ISCPC
